

Teachers - celebrate Australian Citizenship Day 2007 with your students

You and your students will have loads of fun!

On the following pages you will find some lesson and classroom activity ideas that link to the Statements of Learning for Civics and Citizenship and are presented cross-curriculum in line with the Key Learning Areas.

For more information go to www.civicsandcitizenship.edu.au and www.curriculum.edu.au

Black-line masters of this resource

Go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources to access the black-line versions of this teaching resource, designed specifically for quick download and reduced toner use!

Interactive student review quizzes

On the website you will find five Australian Citizenship Day interactives that your students are certain to enjoy as they explore the privileges and responsibilities of being an Australian citizen.

Go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/students

Role-play an Australian citizenship ceremony in your classroom

Role-playing an Australian citizenship ceremony is an ideal way to engage your whole class in a citizenship activity. A print-friendly version of the role-play guidelines for teachers is available from the website www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/teachers or by calling the Citizenship Information Line 131 880

The guidelines give you all the information you need to conduct a classroom Australian citizenship ceremony.

FREE resources for teachers

Australian citizenship products, including posters, balloons, bookmarks, CDs containing resource material and the interactives, and Australian citizenship affirmation kits, can be ordered free of charge on the citizenship website www.citizenship.gov.au/resources

Solutions to the Australian Citizenship Day 2007 student activities

- a) Democracy, b) Privileges, c) Laws, d) Ceremony, e) Passport
- a) Parliament, b) Defence, c) Australian, d) Secure, e) Citizenship
- What a privilege it is to be an Australian citizen and to call Australia home!

