

Teachers - celebrate Australian Citizenship Day 2007 with your students

Black-line masters available online

Go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources to access the black-line version of this teaching resource, designed specifically for quick download and reduced toner use!

You will also find some lesson and classroom activity ideas that link to the Statements of Learning for Civics and Citizenship and are presented cross-curriculum, in line with the Key Learning Areas. For more information go to www.civicsandcitizenship.edu.au and www.curriculum.edu.au

Privileges and responsibilities of Australian citizenship interactive student review quiz

On the website you will find an Australian Citizenship Day interactive that has been developed to engage secondary students as they explore the privileges and responsibilities of being an Australian citizen. Go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/students

Role-play an Australian citizenship ceremony at your school

Role-playing an Australian citizenship ceremony is an ideal way to involve a large group of students in a citizenship activity. A print-friendly version of the role-play guidelines for teachers is available from the website www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/teachers or by calling the Citizenship Information Line 131 880

The guidelines give you all the information you need to conduct an Australian citizenship ceremony.

FREE resources for teachers

Australian citizenship kits and Australian citizenship affirmation kits can be ordered free of charge. Please obtain an order form by visiting the citizenship website www.citizenship.gov.au/resources

Solutions to the Australian Citizenship Day 2007 student activities

1. For information on affirmation ceremonies go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/ceremonies
2. For information on the typical sequence of events at an Australian citizenship ceremony go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/ceremonies and click on 'Australian citizenship ceremonies'.
3. For information on the similarities and differences between the 'Australian citizenship affirmation' and the 'Australian citizenship pledge' go to www.citizenship.gov.au/resources/ceremonies Click on 'the affirmation ceremonies', and the 'Australian citizenship ceremonies' links.
4. For information on the new citizenship test go to www.citizenship.gov.au/test